Keynote Speaker Amalia Molina

Ms. Molina is Director of Families of the Incarcerated, and staff member in the Office of Restorative Justice, Archdiocese of Los Angeles. She also is the author of The Power of Love: My Experience in a U.S. Immigration Jail, which chronicles her 18-month incarceration in a federal detention facility. Having been detained herself, Amalia Molina speaks not only from a professional perspective, but also from a personal one, as she shares her experiences and the importance of keeping the family connected during incarceration. Attendees will hear her story and how detention impacted both her, her husband and her children. Participants will have the opportunity to hear a panel of family members of the incarcerated, ask questions and discuss how to minister to these families and keep them connected to their loved ones.
